Jolly Airdome Company

The Jolly Airdome company of Albuquerque, under the management of Jack Garrett, a young man of exceptional ability as a purveyor of entertainment for the public, has been playing to crowded houses this week at the Flagstaff opera house. The troop of entertainers comprises Tom Gale, the negro impersonator, Mrs. Gale and little Helen, Miss Bernice Berrington, a sweet voiced vocalist and pianist, Harry Conway, and Addie Shoeman, song and dance artists, recent arrivals from Chicago; Joe Lurgro, a real village cut up, with W. E. Clayton as director and stage manager.

It's a really and truly good bunch, with very, very good stunts to work with. They go some and you're sorry when they stop. You really Can't beat it you know for the price, and Garrett wants a place to come back often.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.
